Depot at Memphis, until the adjournment of the next session of the State Legislature. Some discussion followed as to the possibility of a title, Mr. Breese contending that a good title to the site at Memphis could not be had, from all that he had learned upon the subject; while Mr. Fostra assured the Senate, that a good title would be secured; and to lull the appreheusions and the particulte solicitude of the honorable Senator from Illinois, he would tell him that the title would be settled before the close of the present session of Congress. Mr. F. knew that the honorable Senator had preferred Cairo for a site; but Cairo was like Babylon of old—it was, but is no longer—it is among the mighty cities of the past, Mr. President—it is among the the things that were.

At the suggestion of Mr. Tappan, the resolution of Mr. Fostra was referred to the Committee on Navat affairs.

Mr. Dickinson reported a bill concerning the District and Circuit Courts of the Northern District on New York. Read, and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Ashley moved instructions to the Military Committee, as to the expediency of testing the utility of certain alleged improvements in the construction and firing of artillery, by Robt. McCarty, of New York. Resolution agreed to.

Mr. Woodbridge moved that the Library Committee inquire as to the propriety of allowing to a Liberary Association in Michigan, a copy of the series of American State Papers, &c., which was agreed to.

Mr. Henderson reported a bill, authorizing a re-

Mr. Haspesson reported a bill, authorizing a relocation of certain land warrants.

Mr. Basey delivered to the Senate the credentials of the election of Hon. Dixon H. Lewis, of Alabama, (to fill vasoney from resignation of Hon. W. R. King.) which were read, and the Senator relect was qualified, and took his seat.

[Mr. Lewis, as a man, has the greatest weight of any Senator in Congress, graxing hard upon 400 pounds avoirdupois.]

Mr. Barris, from the Judiciary Committee, to whom had been committed various petitions from the western and north-westers tates, for extension of the criminal jurisdiction of the United States Courts—reported,

A bill further to provide for the punishment of offiences against the United States Senate to fil the vacancy arising from the death of Hon Samuel Mr. Roberts. Mr. Semple was called up, and sworn to support the constitution, accordingly.

The resolution from the House for the purchase, for the use of Congress, of $3.000 worth of Greenhow's book upon Oregon, was referred.

Mr. Jarnagin called up a resolution of his from the table—for information connected with the removal, by contract, of the Choctaw infains from Mississipi to the west of the Mississippi rot her went of the Mississippi to the west of the Mississippi rot her went of the discissippi river. Mr. Jarnagin submitted a mere comprehensive soope of inquiry in this respect, as a substitute for the original resolution. The substitute calls upon the Secretary of War to inform the Senate what contracts have been entered into, and with whom, for the removal of said Choctaws, and their subsistence for twelve months afterwards—whether before the last contract was left, he, the Secretary of War did not examine the proposals offered, and whether he accepted the lowest bidders in every instance, what was the contractors—what security has been given for the faithful acquittance of the duties of the contractors—what security has been given for the faithful acquittance of the duties of the contractors—what security has been given for t

[Correspondence of the New York Herald.]
PHILADELPHIA, January 28th, 1845.
It is thought by those who hold offices here, under the Tyler administration, that they will be continued in their high places—need I mention the Collectorship and Postmaster? In this they will assuredly be disappointed, and their posts filled by staunch democrats, and not by those who could as readily have given in their allegiance to either Henry Clay or Captain Tyler, had they been triumphant. Neither will there be "a bargain and sale" compact between Mr. Polk and Tyler, as the friends of the latter seem to insinuate, in the recent nomination of Col. Wm. Polk as Charge d'Affaires. Old Hickory never admired Mr. Tyler, and it is nothing more than probable that he will caution

"Young Hickory" against all political combina-tions. Nous verrons.

The portions of it which I perused, led me to think that the Bishop has been more sinned against than sinsing himself. As I have stated to you before, the clerical gentlemen of this place are almost equally as gallant as their pious predecessor or cotemporary in love matters, and a number of them fully as ambitious as a Napoleonal Dr. Tyng, it is supposed, is trying hard to be crowned with a mitre, and then the charch will be as loyal as possible to "the youthful Queen!"

The sailors here have placed an admirable portrait of "Father Eastburn" in their bethel, which does credit to their generous hearts. The old gentleman was a faithful friend to the mariner, and I have often beheld him earnestly exhorting them, with his aged cheeks bedewed with tears, to avoid the shoals and quick sands that beset them in their moral voyage through life. Now that their old pastor is gone, it is pleasant to have this memento continually before their eyes, which I hope may have it salutary effect in inducing them to imitate the virtues of him who has now "gone aloft."

The spread of infidel associations in this country is truly alarming. There is a body of these wretched creatures in this city, who assemble almost every evening, axd call in question the truth of the Bible, and plume themselves upon their infidelity. Like the schoolmaster in that beautiful poem, "The Deserted Village"—

"Though vanquished, they can argue still."

They challenge the whole world to a discussion of the doctrinal points of religion, and publish their bravado daily in our papers. It is proposed by them to celebrate shortly the birth of Tom Paine with all the eclat in their power. The evil that accrues from such Associations, is only felt by the juvenile portion of the public, who are lured

ON THE CURE UF STRICTULE.

IN A FORMER ADVERTISEMENT ON STRICTURE IN much pains was taken to explain its nature—the diseases which were mistasen for it—tix consequences and its cursalstop that the street frequently crists in those who are not in the least sware of it. Those, however, occupying too incumstance, willowing rounds will be confided to certain this complaint or no, and its proper means of care.

Among other things it was remarked, that it was by no means accessary that the stream of urine should be obstructed, or even much diminished, in a case of stricture; this, indeed, occurs in bod and, long established cases, but stricture may exist for many thing directing the attention to the seat of this disease. the following letter:

Dr. Cooper-Bir:—Least Jely I contracted a certain private disease, one of the continued with him two months, but was gradually setting worse; I tried one after another, all the advertising doctyrs, and each one promised positively to cure

The I as lought discovered the object of these men was money, and that they were not doctors. I concluded to go into the hospital, where the doctors kept me under a course of mercury for eight weeks; my throat and nose were ulcerated, pains all my joints, and my body covered with ulcers. I was a complete skele.on; the doctors lousidered it dangerous to give me any more medicine, and advised a sonthern climate. I left the hospital, and by advice of several friends, placed myself under your care on the first of January last. I am now well and restored to perfect health. I wish this published.

Graylebers—I am requested to state to you, that Mr. J. W.
Sundevant, of Amsterdam, expresses his great satirfaction at the efficacy of Farr's Life Fills. Also, Mr. J. Fairchild, of Cazequovia, in which opinion Mr. A. Bellamy, of Chittenango, also fally accords. Indeed these Fills have superseded all others in New York State—they are not a briak pill, but "slow and sare" persevered in taking them, that has not been cured of the most obstinate and long-standing dyspectic complaints.
